

18909/C

O. XII. a. 73.

COSTUME (THE).

2

M. J. - Bloom

Indian representation of the Costumes of the Ynoa and his Queen.

THE COSTUME
OF THE
INHABITANTS, OF PERU.

London, Published by J. EDINGTON, Lower Thames Street.

A Lady of Lima in her full Dreß.

Male inhabitant of Lima of the middle class of society.

A Female of Lima of the middle Class of Society.

Indians, Male and Female, in Costumes of Festivity.

Female Domestic of Lima of the Class of Quarterons.

Two Female Domestics of Lima. Natives, who have adopted the Spanish Dress.

Civilized Indian wearing the Poncho.

Virgin of the Sun.

A Mestizo of Quito professing a Liberal Art accompanied by his Pupil.

Mulattoes of Quito.

Female Indian, habited as the Minerva of Peru.

Female Warrior of the Yurimagua Tribe.

Indian Warrior belonging to a barbarous Tribe.

Fighter at a Bull-Feast.

Bozal, or Raw-negro, residing in the district of Lima.

Indian Woman of a Village, near Lima.

Overseer of a Royal Peruvian Mine.

Llamas, or Peruvian Sheep.

